Farewell, Seniors!

At Common Hour on Wednesday, April 9th, the VCS Community held a heartfelt Senior Send-off for the Class of 2014. Their advisers read poems, sang songs, and bestowed parting gifts in celebration of the tenure of these remarkable young people. The underclassmen also participated in a Green/Gray trivia competition involving the senior class, in which many pleasant and comical memories were shared.

We wish all of these wonderful individuals nothing but the best in the years to come, as they leave the Flying Turtle nest for their Senior Projects, graduation, and beyond as alums. Fare well wherever you fare, VCS '14!

VCS Presents Much Ado About Nothing

by Lauren Howe (aka "Beatrice")

This year's play was Much Ado About Nothing, a story about comedy, deceit, and love. The cast was not only fun, but talented as well. With Cara's direction, the actors were able to bring the play to life. From Aidan's preform as the evil Don John, to Beatrice and Benedick's tricking scenes, to the dramatic wedding between Natalie and Mitch as Hero and Claudio, the entire play was amazing. All of the cast members were motivated to learn their lines and become their characters on stage. Even Amber, who couldn't make it to the last few practices, did a marvelous job on stage (yay Amber!). Hani, who volunteered later in the season, when the play was running low on characters, also did an excellent job. This was the best play I have ever been in and I'm looking forward to next year.
