Summer Reading List & Uncommon

By Christie Beveridge, Jennifer Cohen, and Jory Hearst

The 2016 Summer Reading List is here! Please find the summer reading letter, high school reading list, and middle school reading list on our website here: <http://vermontcommons.org/2016/06/2016-summer-reading/>

We are also proud to present our 2016 Uncommon literary magazine, featuring some of our students' best creative written works from this past school year. Please find this year's edition on our website, and enjoy: <http://www.vermontcommons.org/wp-content/uploads/Uncommon-2016.pdf>

Summer Hours

Please keep in mind that summer hours are now in effect for our administrative staff. Vermont Commons will generally be open through the summer from 9am-3pm, Mon-Fri. Individual administrative staff on-campus during these times will vary throughout the summer, and we advise that you call/email ahead to set up an appointment with individual staff members.

Thank You from PACS!

By LaTrisha Gibbs

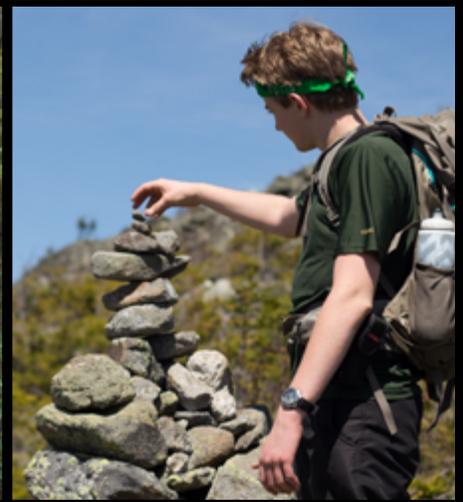

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your time and food items donated to this year's field day. There was an abundance of munchies for all to enjoy, and trust us, THEY DID! PACS only succeeds due to the generosity of our wonderful parent community. We cannot thank you enough for your help throughout the school year. Have a safe and wonderful summer!

Follow Ben & Heather Through Europe

As many of you know, esteemed faculty members Ben Patrick and Heather Moore are currently touring various paleolithic caves in France, Italy, and Spain, on a trip made possible by a grant through "Fund for Teachers."

Ben & Heather invite you to follow along on their journey by checking out their blog at www.ancientpassages.com, which they will be updating regularly throughout their travels this summer. Hope you enjoy!

Congratulations, Class of 2016!
